

News - City

 Print

IITGn organises first ever meet of IITs

By Dhwani Pathak

Posted On Friday, October 22, 2010

For the first time in the history of Indian Institute of Technology (IIT), the IIT Gandhinagar (IIT-Gn) is organising a conference, where delegates from the new IITs will be coming together to dis-cuss and solve issues prominent to the development of nation and the role new IITs play in it. The conference is scheduled on October 23 and 24.

Among the new IITs, IIT Hyderabad, IIT Mandi, IIT Bhuvaneshwar and IIT Indore have confirmed their presence. Two of the IITs — IIT Jodhpur and IIT Patna will be a part of the summit via video conferencing. However, confirmations are still awaited for IIT Ropar.

Copyright 2008 Bennett Coleman & Co. Ltd. . All rights reserved.