Ahmedabad: Indian Institute of Technology, Gandhinagar (IITGn), will be naming its auditorium in memory of prominent Gujarati industrialist late Jasubhai Shah, who passed away recently. The auditorium will be officially known as Jasubhai Memorial Auditorium after a renaming ceremony that will be held here on Friday. Chairman of the Jasubhai Group, Maulik Jasubhai, will be the chief guest of the naming ceremony. The 550-seater, state-of-the-art auditorium is the biggest hall in the campus and has been designed for all major functions, including convocations, public lectures, among others.
