

IITGn to host minority-focused workshop

DNA Correspondent

correspondent@dnaindia.net

The Indian Institute of Technology, Gandhinagar, will be hosting a workshop focussing for the minority and the underprivileged section of society. Taaleem O' Tarbiyat has organized an Education to Entrepreneurship workshop in association with The Indus Entrepreneurs (TiE) and will be held on April 30 at IIT Gandhinagar.

Led by Zafar Sareshwala, Chancellor, Maulana Azad National Urdu University, experts from different sectors

STAR-STUDED

Led by Zafar Sareshwala, Chancellor, Maulana Azad National Urdu University, experts from different sectors are expected to speak and conduct the workshop.

are expected to speak and conduct the workshop.

The workshop will be validated by Venkaiah Naidu, Vice-President of India. The first session will comprise of entrepreneurial story sessions which will discuss the qualities and skills set that would be required to succeed as an entrepreneur.

The second session will educate on how to approach the investors and the third one will teach the basics of branding start-ups.

This unique workshop is aimed to improve the current start-up scenario in Ahmedabad and to better the attempts of the entrepreneurs in Ahmedabad.

The initiative has also been supported by Rama Singh DurgVanshi, Founder of Arise N Awake foundation.

Title: IITGn to host minority –focused workshop

Source :DNA(Pg.No.2)

Date:28/04/2018